

Heppner

The Grand Tour

The Grand Tour will take you through some of Eastern Oregon's most sparsely populated country, wide open spaces, and timbered forests. This tour, approximately 150 miles, is well worth the trip! The uncrowded highway is a joy to drive in a Model A, as the traffic is very moderate. Sage brush and native grasses, along with a few Elk, deer, rabbits, and other small critters, will keep you company along the way. There is real possibility for a touch of snow along the route, as we travel through the Umatilla National Forest, so you might need a sweater or jacket as we travel along. The small town of Ukiah will greet us as we make our way to Heppner. All routes are fully paved.

This tour will be split in order to get everyone fed in a timely manner. You will be assigned either to Group A or Group B. Group A will get to Heppner first, then eat lunch, look around Heppner for a an hour or two, the head for Ukiah. Group B will travel to Ukiah first, then on to Heppner, eat lunch, look around Heppner for an hour or two, then head for Pendleton.

In order to get everyone safely and timely through Pendleton, and beat the traffic lights, we will meet at the Remillard Rusty Bucket Ranch on Tutuilla Creek Rd., and depart from there. The address is:

72220 Tutuilla Creek Rd
